

H. S. Fair

My dear Miss Weston,

We send you our little offering for the Bazaar — Mine is small indeed, but I trust you will not measure my interest in the good cause, by it — which I assure you is unabated.
My health has not been good the past year, so that I shall not be able to look in upon you, as I should like to do — My Sister and Miss Dillaway send you the cakes &c. with their love —

Yours very affectionately,

Caroline Porter.
